Actuarial Communication: Importance and Improvement

Join Floyd Chadee, FSA, CFO of Stancorp Financial (parent company of Standard Insurance) who will provide his perspectives on the importance of actuarial communications, both within the actuarial and broader business communities. In his role as CFO of a large publicly traded company, Mr. Chadee frequently discusses complicated financial and actuarial concepts to investors, analysts, and regulators.

In this dual presentation, Mr. Chadee's short presentation will be reviewed and discussed by members of Standard's chapter of Toastmasters, providing an example of how the Toastmasters organization provides an enjoyable way to practice and hone communication and leadership skills, applicable to actuaries everywhere.
