Abstract

We will have three different speakers this month; Sally Manafi, Charlie Dolezal and Woody Richen. They will be speaking about their experience as actuaries serving on non-profit boards. Actuaries have much to contribute to boards in terms of skills and perspectives but many also find that they learn a great deal and are helped in their career. We have asked the speakers to touch on these and other topics.

They come from a wide range of non-profit organizations.

Sally Manafi, Vice President and Corporate Actuary at The Standard: Trillium Family Services (mental health services for children)

Woody Richen, Retired Vice President from The Standard: Bach Cantata Choir, Portland Symphonic Choir (prior board member and board chair).

Charlie Dolezal, Second Vice President and Associate Actuary at The Standard : Oregon Public Broadcasting (OPB), Families w/ Children from China (FCC), Friend's on Tryon Creek State Park
