Description:

Mick Diede, a health care industry veteran with more than 30 years of experience, will share his insights into how to build an actuarial career. Specifically, he will discuss mistakes that should be avoided in order to be successful as an actuary.

Speaker Bio:

Mick Diede is the Senior Vice President and Chief Actuary of Kaiser Permanente and has over 30 years of experience in the actuarial field.

Prior to his current role, Mick served as the lead actuary and Vice President of Kaiser Permanente's California Region, providing technical expertise and leadership for the lines-of-business rate setting, rate filings, pricing, and product development. Simultaneously he served as Kaiser's Chief Actuary, while extending his leadership to the Hawaii Region.

Prior to joining Kaiser in 2005, Mick spent most of his career working as a health care consultant with Milliman, USA. He is a fellow of the Society of Actuaries and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics from Montana State University. He also completed the Kaiser Executive Leadership Program at Harvard University.
